5, 10 & 25 Cent Store.Country Needs Good Citizens. Good Christians Make Good Citizens

IT was Daniel Webster who said, "Whatever makes men good Christians makes men good citizens."

If ever there was a time when this country needed good citizens it is now. There is no better way to make a good Christian and a good citizen than to exploit the GO TO CHURCH movement. Talk it up wherever you go. Every time you GO TO CHURCH try to get some one to go with you. If you have a friend who is derelict in his religious duty plead with him. Reason with him. Point out to him that it is his duty as an American citizen to GO TO CHURCH.

It often has been said that, next to the church, the newspapers are the most powerful agents for good. Many newspapers have taken up the go to church slogan. Newspapers, like the churches, are interested in the general welfare of the people. Hundreds of thousands of persons who seldom went to church now go every Sunday as a result of the splendid publicity campaign that has been waged. There is no denying this wonderful go to church movement. It is getting on tremendously. It is confined to no particular sect or creed. The churches of all denominations have been benefited.

Now that the GO TO CHURCH movement is in full swing, keep it going. Don't cease in your efforts. Crowd the churches. If there isn't enough room build more edifices. Remember the words of Webster that "whatever makes men good Christians makes them good citizens."

This country wants good citizens. Today it is more than ever the country of promise.

Never let an opportunity go by to sing the praise of the GO TO CHURCH movement.
